

Contents

Introduction .....	1
Agenda.....	3
The Importance of Community to Fisheries Management James Balsiger .....	6
Empowering Fishing Communities: A View from an IGO (International Governmental Organization) Bureaucrat Ross Shotton .....	9
The Western Alaska CDQ Program Mark Davis .....	13
Local Area Management Plans: Using the Collaborative Process in Sitka Eric Jordan .....	15
Community Quota Entity (CQE) Program in Craig, Alaska Brian Templin .....	19
Community Impact Assessment Data Issues in the North Pacific Fisheries Michael A. Downs .....	24
Communities Research at the Alaska Fisheries Science Center Jennifer Sepez .....	31
Commercial Fishing Crew Demographics and Trends in the North Pacific: 1993-2003 Courtney Carothers and Jennifer Sepez .....	37
Salmon Management: Who Makes the Rules? Diana Cote .....	41
Overview of Process for Federal Fisheries Management Chris Oliver .....	44
Legal Issues with Community Programs John Lepore .....	49

The Regulatory Process for Federally Managed Fisheries
Jay J.C. Ginter..... 51

The Fundy Fixed Gear Council: Implementing a Community
Quota—Case Study 1
Hubert E. Saulnier ..... 56

The Community Panels Project: Institutionalizing Social Science Data Collection—Case Study 2
Madeleine Hall-Arber..... 60

Sustaining Fisheries—Sustaining Communities
McKie Campbell ..... 71

Breakout Group Discussion Points and Recommendations ..... 76

Participants ..... 86

Index ..... 93