

Proposal for Publishing with Alaska Sea Grant

For use by professional partners of the Alaska Sea Grant College Program

Alaska Sea Grant needs details on manuscripts we are asked to publish. Please print and fill out this proposal form, or use our online form at <http://seagrant.uaf.edu/pub-eproposal.html>. If you prefer, you may include the information on a separate sheet or email message. We will respond to your proposal as soon as possible. Submit the proposal to:

Sue Keller, Publications Manager
Alaska Sea Grant
University of Alaska Fairbanks
PO Box 755040
Fairbanks, AK 99775-5040
Phone (907) 474-6703 • Fax (907) 474-6285 • email fnsk@uaf.edu

- 1. Author name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address. Please attach your CV or resume if Alaska Sea Grant does not have one on file.
- 2. Publication title.
- 3. Description of publication (include an outline of subjects covered, reading grade level, length).
- 4. Describe resources used for writing the publication (research, names and affiliations of experts).
- 5. If your manuscript is based on a Sea Grant-funded project, describe the project and give the project number. If your manuscript is not based on a Sea Grant-funded project, tell why Sea Grant would be an appropriate publisher for this work.

13. How many copies will be needed for the first two years after it is published?

14. Shelf-life: In how many years will the publication be out-of-date? Do you plan to revise it at that time?

15. Date you plan to submit manuscript and other materials to Alaska Sea Grant, and date final manufactured publication is needed.

16. Indicate the suggested form for your publication from the list below.

Marine Advisory Bulletin (audience is primarily fishing industry)

Education publication (audience is K–12 and general public)

Report (e.g., proceedings, research)

Aquaculture Note

Sea Gram (1–6 pages)

Field guide

Other (describe: _____)

17. List names and addresses of three people we can ask to review your final manuscript.

Other information.